Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-60, drawn to methods for facilitating subsidies to consumers, classified in class 705, subclass 1.
- II. Claims 61-69, drawn to computer based apparatus and computer readable media encoded with algorithms facilitating the issuance of subsidies to consumers, classified in class 700, subclasses 2 and 89.

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus can be used to practice materially different processes. A computer apparatus can practice other processes, such as word processing, arithmetic calculation, creation of graphics and transmitting written messages. Computer readable media can be used to practice other materially different processes when the media is encoded with different algorithms, such as algorithms for controlling an operating system, algorithms for playing games, algorithms for creating spread sheets, etc.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
